13th October, 2022
Circular No: Acad-121/2022

Subject: CBSE Adolescent Summit on Life Skills, Mental Health, Safety and Well Being (15-17 December 2022) – reg.

The need for a continued dialogue and educational intervention in pursuit of empowering the adolescents of our country as Mental Health and Well-Being Ambassadors has been strongly felt. When adolescents acquire knowledge, values and life skills, they benefit in a variety of ways. These qualities help them to make informed decisions, solve problems, think critically and creatively, communicate effectively, build healthy relationships, empathise with others and cope with and manage their lives in a healthy and productive manner.

Schools are envisaged as nodal centres for skills based health promotion programmes. It has been noted that schools are the key forums for acquisition of Health related Knowledge, Attitudes and Life Skills. They are indeed the source of empowering children towards being responsible citizens.

In pursuance of the holistic development of our adolescents, CBSE is organising The CBSE Adolescent Summit on Life Skills, Mental Health, Safety and Well Being 2022 for the schools affiliated to CBSE in collaboration with Expressions India as per the following details:
